OUR BIOGRAPHY

Lorne Currie - Lead Vocals

There's no jive talking as Lorne revives the vibrant energy of retro dance music, with Lorne himself stepping away from his bass-playing role to focus on fronting and energizing the group, ensuring that the groove is staying alive and makes everyone want to dance.

Todd Ingram - Bass / Vocals

Todd's musical journey showcases his versatility and passion for funk and groove, as evidenced by his extensive touring across Canada and Europe with the Paul Lawson Band and AC/DC tribute Dirty Deeds. Now, with Disco Techs, he continues to evolve artistically, infusing his performances with dynamic basslines and irresistible rhythms that keep audiences dancing and funk-ing out in every way, highlighting his ongoing commitment to musical innovation and live entertainment.

Anthony (Tony) Leudy - Guitar / Vocal

You may have been born to be alive, but Tony was born to play that funky music. Tony highlights his versatility and passion for funk and rock, showcasing his mastery of the six-string guitar across diverse groups over his music career. His ability to deliver infectious riffs, blistering leads, and soulful vocals not only energizes any party but also cements his reputation as a dynamic performer capable of creating memorable live experiences, and celebrate your party with you.

Tammy Currie - Keys / Vocals

Tammy, a seasoned performer with years of experience fronting county bands across Eastern Canada from Toronto to Newfoundland, is now expanding her musical repertoire by joining Disco Techs, where she plays keys and provides female vocals, bringing a fresh and lively energy to the group's disco sound. You know that girl's all right now, yeah, Hey, hey, hey...

Allan MacEachern - Drums / Vocals

If you want his body, and you think he's sexy... What more needs to be said?
